FULBRIGHT DISTINGUISHED AWARDS IN TEACHING PROGRAM

FOR INTERNATIONAL TEACHERS

The Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching Program for International Teachers (Fulbright DAI) brings international primary and secondary teachers to the United States for a semester-long program to pursue individual or group projects, take courses for professional development at a U.S. host university, and observe and share their expertise with U.S. colleagues.

How does Fulbright DAI improve classrooms, schools and communities?

Expanding subject knowledge

Technology for the classroom

Professional leadership skills & planning

Progressive teaching methods

Observing & teaching in U.S. classrooms

Focus on global impact and building mutual understanding

ELIGIBILITY

- Full-time primary and secondary educators, including classroom teachers, guidance counselors, curriculum specialists, library media specialists, and special education coordinators, administrators and others who spend at least half of their time interacting with students
- Five years of full-time teaching experience or working with students in another capacity
- Proven track record of professional development activities and leadership

HOW TO APPLY:
Application Deadline: February 25, 2018
The online application is available at: https://oas.irex.org/fulbrightdai

TO LEARN MORE, VISIT:
Website: irex.org/fulbright-dai
For more information, please contact: KampalaExchanges@state.gov